Lindenwood is equipped to meet the needs of faith communities and individuals seeking peace, serenity, and the presence of God. We offer private guest rooms, ample meeting spaces, meals, and access to the beautiful Gothic chapel at the Center at Donaldson. Guests can walk a meditative labyrinth, explore the adjacent grounds, or shop in the bookstore. Our guests are encouraged to unplug from everyday life and reflect in quiet contemplation. Many embrace this life-changing opportunity to pause, as one first-time retreatant shared:

"When I signed up for the retreat, I didn't know what to expect. It was wonderful to be greeted right away and welcomed into this blessed place. I am grateful for Sister Joetta. She listens and made this a personalized guided retreat for discernment. I appreciate the directed retreat guide she provided and the 'assignments'. She helped to open my heart to silent prayers. The amenities provided are great-- mass, reconciliation, access to the Ancilla Domini Chapel, the grounds. Thank you for a peaceful and enlightening retreat! I hope others learn about Lindenwood and may have the opportunity to spend quality time with God here."

Your generous support to Lindenwood Retreat & Conference Center made all of this possible.

Thank you!
